

SMR CORPORATION — HR POLICY HANDBOOK

Version 2.1 | Effective Date: January 2025

SECTION 1: LEAVE POLICY

1.1 Annual Leave

All full-time employees are entitled to 20 working days of annual leave per calendar year. Part-time employees receive leave on a pro-rata basis. Leave entitlement accrues from the first day of employment. Unused leave may be carried forward up to a maximum of 5 days into the following calendar year. Any unused leave beyond this limit will be forfeited unless special approval is granted by HR.

1.2 Sick Leave

Employees are entitled to 10 days of paid sick leave per year. For absences exceeding 3 consecutive days, a medical certificate from a registered doctor is required. Sick leave cannot be carried forward and does not accumulate.

1.3 Casual Leave

Each employee receives 5 days of casual leave per year for personal emergencies. Casual leave must be applied at least 24 hours in advance except in cases of genuine emergency. Approval is at the discretion of the line manager.

1.4 Leave Application Process

All leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal at least 5 working days in advance for annual leave, and 1 working day in advance for casual leave. Emergency leave should be communicated to the line manager via phone or email immediately, followed by a formal application within 2 working days of return.

SECTION 2: CODE OF CONDUCT

2.1 Professional Conduct

All employees are expected to conduct themselves professionally and respectfully at all times. This includes interactions with colleagues, clients, vendors, and any other business associates.

2.2 Harassment Policy

SMR maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward any form of harassment, including verbal, physical, or digital harassment. Any incident must be reported to the HR department within 5 working days. Investigations will be completed within 30 days of the report.

2.3 Confidentiality

Employees must maintain strict confidentiality regarding all proprietary business information, client data, and internal communications. This obligation continues for a period of 2 years after the termination of employment.

SECTION 3: ONBOARDING POLICY

3.1 Probation Period

All new employees undergo a 3-month probation period. During this period, performance will be reviewed monthly. Confirmation of employment is subject to satisfactory completion of the probation period.

3.2 Training & Onboarding

New employees must complete the mandatory onboarding programme within the first 2 weeks of joining. This includes compliance training, tool setup, team introductions, and a departmental orientation session.

3.3 Equipment & Access

IT equipment will be provided on the first day of joining. Software access and credentials will be provisioned within 24 hours of joining. Employees are responsible for the safekeeping of all company-issued equipment.

SECTION 4: REMOTE WORK POLICY

4.1 Eligibility

Employees who have completed their probation period are eligible to apply for remote work arrangements. Remote work is subject to manager approval and departmental requirements.

4.2 Work Hours

Remote employees must be available and responsive during core business hours of 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM local time. Attendance at scheduled meetings is mandatory regardless of work location.

4.3 Security

Remote employees must use VPN when accessing company systems. Use of public Wi-Fi for company work is strictly prohibited without VPN.
